PENNSYLVANIA JOURNALISTS VISITED EDMONTON YESTERDAY

Parties Driven About the City
by Prominent Business Men
Excursionists Went South Last Night.

The Pennsylvania Editorial Association arrived in Edmonton on Saturday evening 180 strong. The first thing they did was to rush up town to secure rooms in the city hotels, but much to their disappointment they learned that Edmonton has become such a Mecca for tourists and the travelling public generally that it was impossible to secure accommodation except by telegraphing some days ahead.

As it was, however, a limited number found quarters in the Alberta hotel and yesterday morning the rotunda and halls of the Alberta presented an animated scene of editors, and their ladies in busy conversation with the prominent citizens of Edmonton.

The majority of the party were obliged to spend the night in the Pullmans.

The day being the Sabbath, Edmonton was put to a disadvantage in giving expression to her welcome and hospitality, or else the entertainment accorded the party at the other points on the C. N. R. would have been but a passing memory and forgotten in the warmth and magnitude of our reception. As it was, Edmonton kept the Sabbath, and a great many, the majority of whom were women, took advantage of the occasion to attend church and learn that we have not only a great laud, but great preschere as well. The others were driven around the city. Everyone was delighted with the natural beauty of the place, and the clear, bracing atmosphere, which as some said, is more than air—it is ether. Another thing that surprised and charmed the visitors was the long evenings and twilight in this region.

In the afternoon many called at Government House.

The whole party were driven over to Strathcona, where their special train was waiting to go south at 5.30. They go to Calgary and Banff today. Thence to the coast, where they will be entertained by Vancouver and Victoria boards of trade, to excursions on the Gulf. Returning they will be entertained at Calgary on the 4th of August, also at Lethbridge and Medicine Hat. They reach Toronto on the 16th of August, where the trip practically ends, and the merry party disbands. Many had never been farther into Canada than Toronto before, and thought they had seen our country, but as one of the editors said, "We stood but in the vestibule."

A complete list of the visitors is as follows:

J. H. Trescher, Dispatch, Jeannette, Pa.; Mrs. J. H. Trescher, Jeannette, Pa.; Mrs. J. Wesley Porter, Jeannette, Pa.; John L. Morrison, Evening Record, Advance Argue, Greenville, Pa.; Mrs. John L. Morrison, Greenville, Pa.; C. A. Berger, Evening Times, Warren, Pa.; George L. Myer, Gazette, Mahaffey, Pa.; Mrs. Geo. L. Myer, Mahaffey, Pa.; Mrs. J. H. Berger, Warren, Pa.; W. Rodemard, Star-Independent, Harrisburg, Pa.; Miss Helen Rodemard, Harrisburg, Pa.; E. A. Hempstead, Journal, Meadville, Pa.; Mrs. E. A. Hempstead, Miss Louise Hempstead, Meadville, Pa.

—Richards & Pringle's minstrels arrived in the city this morning. After dinner their brass band, accompanied by the trick bicycle rider, paraded down Jasper, and gave an open-air concert in front of the Bulletin office. The band is an exceptionally good one, and the music of excellent quality. The minstrels perform in the Thistle Theatre this evening.

—One of the Pullmans attached to the special train of the Pennsylvania Editorial Association, which visited the city yesterday, jumped the track on the E. Y. & P. while the train was running to Strathcona last evening. The passengers of the car were transferred to another Pullman, the journey being delayed only an hour or so. A refrigerator car was also derailed in the yards this morning, but no damage resulted.

GREAT CANADIAN JOURNALIST

J. A. McDonald, of the Globe, Visits Edmonton.

James A. McDonald, the managing editor of the Toronto Globe is on a trip through the west. He arrived over the C.N.R. last night. Tomorrow he and Mrs. McDonald will leave for Banff and the Pacific coast. He will visit his sister in San Francisco. To the Bulletin this morning Mr. McDonald said that business conditions never were more favorable in Ontario than at the present, and this will be a great year for the banner province of the Dominion.

Mr. McDonald is one of the recent appointees to the Board of Governors of the University of Toronto. He says the board has as yet no idea who will be appointed as president of the university. He said that such an appointment was made when one considers that Mr. McDonald is the editor of the great Opposition paper in the Ontario Legislature. But though he hits hard he never hits below the belt.

Mr. McDonald is a splendid public speaker, an infectious personality and is maintaining and elevating the best traditions and ideals of Canadian journalism.

Goods packed in Canada and also samples put up by manufacturers of the United States were analyzed. There were three hundred and twenty-two samples collected for analysis from all over Canada. Only four samples out of the total collection were found to give evidence of decomposition, a proportion amounting to a little over one per cent. The preservatives sought were salicylic, benzoic, sulphuric and boric acid, but only the latest named was detected in a small number of samples and the quantity did not exceed the limit fixed by the English parliamentary commission.

(Special to the Bulletin)

SEVERE FIGHTING IN RUSSIA

(Special to the Bulletin)
 Poltava, July 29.—One of the most severe outbreaks in the local garrison's history occurred on Sunday, when the Sveisk regiment mutinied and defied its officers. Two battalions marched through the streets singing revolutionary songs. Then they marched to the prison where political offenders were confined and attempted to rescue certain members of their regiment serving terms there. Another troop in the garrison were ordered to suppress the mutiny, and fired on the malcontents. The fighting lasted until 2 o'clock this morning, when the rebellious soldiers surrendered. Many were killed and wounded.

CALGARY PEOPLE STARTLED.

Calgary Albertan: Without a rumble, without a sign of warning, without a sign of any kind there darted out in this city yesterday morning shortly after seven o'clock a bright, piercing, blinding flash of lightning and simultaneously a most terrific crash of thunder.

The crash and the flash were so unexpected that people were appalled by the force of it. It sounded so much like the crack of doom is supposed to sound that nervous residents of the city believed that something very alarming had happened.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR

Senator McMullen is in Edmonton To-day.

Hon. James McMullen, one of the sturdy Liberals of Ontario, and whose vigorous speeches were one of the features of parliamentary debate in the days of Liberal opposition, is visiting Edmonton in company with his son. This is the first time the senator has visited this city and to the Bulletin this morning expressed himself as delighted with the situation of Edmonton on the banks of a noble river. "Your city has excellent drainage facilities," said Mr. McMullen, "and that is essential to any city." Mr. McMullen has not had the opportunity of seeing much of the city, but today he is on a trip to the country and no doubt will be satisfied with what he sees.

Speaking on the work of the session the Senator said that much legislation had been passed, and that it was surprising how the duties of parliament are being multiplied. The business of parliament has doubled in the last five years, due to the unexampled development and prosperity of the western provinces. Mr. McMullen is confident the west will in time be the most important part of the Dominion and though the east is sometimes a little jealous they felicitate with their compatriots in an increasing spirit of Canadian nationalism.

Speaking of the Senate, Mr. McMullen expressed the opinion that reform would overtake that venerable body before long. His idea of reforming the senate is to have the senators elected by ballot vote of the provincial legislatures for a period of ten years. This would obviate the unwholesome feature of the present conditions that are in vogue. Under a Conservative government the Senate is Conservative, and under a Liberal it is Liberal, but under Mr. McMullen's plan the political complexion of the Senate would be as varied as the provincial legislature that elect its members.

Mr. McMullen is not in favor of abolishing the Senate. "A nation may become too democratic," said the speaker, "and the elective chamber carried away by popular clamor." A body is required that will view public questions from the side of public interest and patriotism, and not from the sometimes narrower standpoint of parties.

In reference to the personnel of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's cabinet the honorable gentleman said that it was the equal of any cabinet that had directed Canadian affairs.

Mr. Aylesworth is quickly becoming a strong administrator and has the essential and undeniable qualities of ability, sterling honesty, and intense Canadian spirit.

Although Sir Richard Cartwright is feeble in body his mind is as keen and his advice as sage and sane as ever.

Speaking of the Minister of the Interior the Senator said Mr. Oliver was regarded by his friends in the East as a self-made man of undeniable courage, tenacious of his convictions and fearless in expressing them. He is looked upon as a safe administrator with common sense and scrupulous honesty.

Hon. Mr. McMullen is visiting his niece, wife of Ald. Manson.

SUICIDE AT PRINCE ALBERT

Young Belgian Shot Himself Saturday.—Ill Health the Probable Cause.

(Special to the Bulletin)
 Prince Albert, Sask., July 28.—When court was assembling after luncheon those in attendance were startled by a pistol shot in the rooms above the court, used as lodgings. One of these rooms was rented by Robt. Finet, a young Belgian. He had taken his life, shooting himself in the head. He had used a 44 cal. army revolver. Finet complained during the morning of not feeling well. He owed considerable money in the city and remittances from home had stopped. He was a bright young man well liked by everybody. He came from a good family in Brussels. His father was a banker and his brother in law is a high court judge.

Construction From Edmonton Prevented Only by Lack of Men and Teams.

Mr. Frank W. Morse, general manager of the G.T.R., arrived in the city at an early hour this morning by C. N.R. He is accompanied by Mr. C. Starvart, general assistant, and Mr. G. A. McNicholl, private secretary to Mr. Morse. The party will remain in town for a day or two, proceeding south per C.P.R.

Seen this morning Mr. Morse said: "There is no special significance in this visit. We are examining into the work done, and arranging for that to be performed later on."

"What about construction from Edmonton east?"

"The construction of the line between Edmonton and Winnipeg is progressing as rapidly as can be expected. The great activity in this section of the country makes it impossible to have as large a force as we would like; at the same time the contractors are doing all in their power to increase the number of men and number of outfits on the work."

"If a large number of men and teams could be secured at Edmonton, we would be very glad to start them immediately on construction from here east."

"Has Clover Bar crossing been officially announced?"

"As regards Clover Bar crossing, as you no doubt know, Mayor May and

DRILLING FOR ROCK BOTTOM.

The C. P. R. will commence drilling operations today in the river bed at the survey line of the high level bridge, for the purpose of obtaining the depth of the hard pan bottom, upon which the piers of the new bridge will be built.

The company have secured R. Gilmour and his drilling outfit to accomplish the tests and Mr. Gilmour will move his machinery to the south side of the river today and commence operations as soon as possible. The drilling will be carried on right across the stream and will occupy some time. A gang of four men will be required to carry on the work.

IMMIGRATION NEWS.

Four American farmers arrived in the city this morning, and put up at the immigration hall. They are the advance guard of a whole army of farmers who will migrate from that state to the last west in the fall. They are well pleased with Alberta and will look over the country near White Horse Lake. As soon as possible they will take up land and settle.

A bunch of prospectors from British Columbia and other places, with a large wagon load of supplies and a good team of horses, left the immigration office this morning, their destination being the Pembina district. Everyone in the party has a home-stead in that district. It will take them about two days to make the trip.

MOOSEJAW BRANCH.

Moosejaw Signal: Commissioner McKellar, of the Board of Trade, has received from Vice-President Whyte, of the C. P. R., the following communication respecting the north branch from Hugh McKellar, Esq., this city, which confirms previous Signal reports:—

Winnipeg, 18th July, 1906. Commissioner Board of Trade, Moose Jaw.

Dear Mr. McKellar—I am in receipt of your letter of the 11th inst., and have also received petition from the settlers round Keelerville in regard to the further extension of our Moose Jaw line this year, and may inform you that I purpose, if possible, building this line to the fiftieth mile post this season if I can arrange it.

The great difficulty, however, is that with the amount of railroad construction going on in the west, it is very hard to get contractors and, furthermore, the demand for labor on the farms and elsewhere is so great that we have to encounter a difficult problem in getting the necessary supply for construction and maintenance work on our lines of railway.

If the settlers are in any way disappointed, it will be from their causes and not from an unwillingness on my part to provide them with railway facilities. The matter is now up with a contractor, and I hope to have the work proceeded with at an early date.

Yours truly, (Sgd.) W. WHYTE, Second Vice-President.

THE CAPS ROASTED.

Calgary, Alberta.

The chronicling of victories of the Calgary ball team over the Edmonton team has become a weariness. It has been ever such. Since the season began up to the present time it has been one perpetual triumph. There was a relief in one tied game, somewhat of a sensation in a game which was called before the time, and an absolute wonder worker, when Calgary actually lost a game. There was some variation, too, right before last, when Edmonton looked a game.

We won again last night, and there was variety in that too, for it took us until the ninth inning to do the trick. The Calgary team has a habit of sending the enemy to bat first. As they win all their home games by good margins it is seldom that they go to bat in the ninth innings. But that is what they did last night.

The feature of the game last night was the perpetual kicking of the Edmonton team. The kicking was senseless, childish and repulsive. A Calgary audience is a very fair and just audience because it is a cosmopolitan crowd. In every game played fully one-third of the crowd are indifferent as to the result, and good plays are always applauded, by whom-ever they are made.

But in a night every person became disgusted. Wild William Setley and his bunch of fossilized satellites are introducing into the ball game in Alberta the same features which put the ball game out of business last year by Moosebaxter and his bunch of has-brens.

The work of the umpire last night was fair, though it happened that the close decisions were given against the visiting team. They should have been given against the visiting team. If Mr. Bramston made any mistakes, and he made some it was in making some decisions in which the home team suffered.

Wild Bill is a good coacher however and will always add spice and interest to the game in Calgary. His like on the coaching line has never been seen. "You are a little slack in your time" is one of the thrusts he made when Manager Fidler began business with the line bag, but the bleachers never saw the "pun." "What kind of bunting do you call that, calico?" was another of his thrusts. "If a woodpecker had four brains he would fly backwards," was one of his retorts to a bleacherite.

When Bill is coaching he is a welcome visitor. When he starts his bullying tactics, he is not wanted.

Edmonton might have won the game last night very easily. Their slickers landed on Mullin very fiercely and the Calgary fielding was only half fair. But when Edmonton made errors they were so costly, and the decision to kick rather than to play ball cost two runs which were unnecessary.

Mr. Cross have been in the east for some weeks. They realize the advantage to Edmonton if the Grand Trunk Pacific enter the city via Clover Bar, and they have been urging upon the government the desirability of having our line come by that route, and I can say that anything that has been accomplished in this direction, and any benefits or advantages that accrue to the city by our line coming direct to Edmonton is due entirely to the efforts of these gentlemen. Mayor May and Mr. Cross will undoubtedly be able to tell you, in a short time what they have accomplished in the east, and the details of the arrangements for bringing the Grand Trunk Pacific into your city.

"What about a union station at Edmonton?"

"The subject of a union station has not been taken up since I was last here. We are anxious to do what we consistently can to meet the wishes of the people of Edmonton, and it is the desire of the city to have a union station, and it can be arranged so that the accommodation we require can be secured, we will be very glad to do all in our power to bring about the results desired by the city. This, however, is a matter that will be dealt with later."

REPRESENTING THE RAILWAY SITUATION

While no official announcement has been made, the press despatches from Ottawa during the past week reported that the G. T. P. crossing at Clover Bar had been ratified by the Government and this report was confirmed by a telegram from Dr. McIntyre, M.P., for Strathcona, who is now in Ottawa. That the report should have been disappointing to the people of Strathcona was to be supposed and that the Strathcona press should voice this disappointment was quite natural. But disappointment is no excuse for misrepresentation, and no degree of disappointment can justify the misrepresentation which the Strathcona papers place upon the railway situation in an attempt to prove the righteousness of their cause and to magnify the ground of their complaint.

The Plaindealer says: "It is nearly two years since we became aware that the company for some reason or another, wanted to side-track Strathcona and ever since that time the business men of this town have been on the alert to obtain a change of the company's purpose in this regard; first through negotiations with the general manager and later through the Railway Department of the Dominion of Canada."

The correct statement would have been that it is now some two years since it became known that the company wished to adopt for the main line the most direct route consistent with the required grades from Beaver Lake into Edmonton, and that since that time the press and the public bodies of Strathcona have been on the alert to secure a deflection of this route which would carry the line through their town. With such laudable effort on the part of the Strathcona people no fault is to be found, but that their efforts were "unsuccessful" is no reason why the press should represent the Grand Trunk Pacific Company as governed by preconceived animus toward Strathcona. To represent the company as desiring to "side-track" Strathcona is an exaggeration possible only by an unwarrantable perversion of the facts and circumstances. The company preferred a certain route for the avowed reason of directness and favorable grades. This route was not acceptable to the people of Strathcona, but that it was not acceptable to them affords the Plaindealer no rightful privilege to say that the avowed reasons were not the real reasons.

That in making such accusation an injustice is done the company the Plaindealer admits by saying in the succeeding paragraph: "It now appears that the survey which was made by the Government engineer with Strathcona engineers assisting, is not satisfactory and the company is allowed to take its own course."

The said survey was undertaken by the Government for the express purpose of finding if an equally good grade could not be secured by Strathcona. The engineer assisting was one who could certainly not be accused of unfavorable disposition toward Strathcona. If the survey made under such circumstances "is not satisfactory" this should be the best testimony possible that the company's avowed reasons for preferring the Clover Bar route were both the real reasons and were valid reasons. In imputing other motives under these circumstances the Plaindealer condemns the company against the evidence of its own witness.

There is even less reason for the following onslaught on the city of Edmonton: "The city of Edmonton has played a clever game, the game of 'hog, and won it. The Grand Trunk Pacific was known to be there from the time the bill incorporating it was introduced into Parliament, but that was not enough for our ambitious friends across the river. With the zeal, determination and strategy worthy of a more generous cause they set about to have the line that was assured to them deflected so as to 'side-track' their next-door neighbor."

To represent Edmonton as the aggressor is quite as unwarranted and far more damaging to the general good than to represent the company as a malefactor. On the statement of the Plaindealer Edmonton was assured both the entrance of the G. T. P. and the location of the terminals. The motive therefore, which might have prompted Edmonton in combating the cause of Strathcona, is denied by the journal which imputes such course to Edmonton. The facts of the situation, as often recited in these columns, were that the direct route favored by the company was favored also by Edmonton as affording an entrance to the city with the minimum damage to its interests. That Edmonton should have joined Strathcona in an effort to defeat this proposal and to bring the new road into the city in a manner which would have very seriously disturbed the economic conditions of the city was scarcely to be supposed. But because Edmonton did not do so is no excuse for representing this city as conniving against the welfare of its neighbor. Strathcona was the aggressor in the case; that Edmonton could not join in her cause was Strathcona's misfortune but was not a sign of Edmonton's antagonism, for this city had no alternative consistent with her own interests.

Naturally enough the Chronicle is more venomous and less mindful of facts than its contemporary. Seeking to worm partly advantage out of a non-political subject it disputes even the fact which the Plaindealer admits and says concerning the Government survey that "A route was found better than the required standard." It gives a version of recent political history of Strathcona which is neither remarkable for its fairness nor conspicuous for its relevancy and endeavors from its muddy review to draw the pre-determined conclusion that "This town could have been served without injury to Edmonton or any other town. The Government, regardless of our rights, and of its promises, has simply thrown us down." In its anxiety to find a political motive where such was neither necessary nor wise, the Chronicle overreaches and lands itself in the position of accusing the Government of voluntarily damaging its own reputation. The Chronicle is an exception to the general rule of critics and seeks distinction by charging the Government with doing without compunction what was most likely to alienate this favor of the Strathcona electors. Blinded by prejudice in its quest for a political motive, it denies the Government not only all pretension to honesty and fairness, but to political judgment as well and contends that without the shadow of reason the Government deliberately went counter to the wishes of a thriving and prosperous community. Such is not the nature of the charges usually made against the administration and it will be passing strange if some equally worthy critic does not discover that there must have been substantial public reasons to warrant the Government in risking its reputation in Strathcona.

How Blending Enriches

Blue Ribbon

TEA

"Blending" tea means combining several distinct styles so as to produce a richer and better balanced drink than would be possible by using any one kind alone.

For example, Indian teas are noted for their remarkable strength and pungency, while Ceylon teas are rather supple, but excel in fragrance. Each supplies the features that the other lacks. A judicious blend of the two gives Blue Ribbon Tea the richness and strength of the one with the delightful fragrance of the other.

Tea blending is a fine art, and science demanding skill and experience, and many so-called blends are indiscriminate mixtures. But Blue Ribbon Tea is blended by an expert skill and experience, and the resulting flavor is simply perfect—unlike any other.

If you have not yet tried Blue Ribbon Tea, there's a treat in store for you. Lead packets, etc., and 50c a pound.

Have You Ever Thought Edmonton Real Estate Has Always Been Good Buying?

But it never was as gilt edged as it is to-day, because it never was such a certainty. One good crop after another has eased all minds as to the stability and fertility of the soil and this is all that is required to make Edmonton the Chicago of Western Canada. Our city has passed the experimental stage, and the wise (?) men who looked on and predicted all kinds of evil things are soreheads now because they didn't buy.

The eyes of Manufacturers have seen the rapid and substantial growth of the city and the possibilities there are for their business not only in the city but in the vast expanse of splendid country within easy distance of it, with the large number of thriving towns springing up in every direction.

Edmonton is bound to grow by leaps and bounds during the next five years and there are many now living here who will say at the end of that time "Why didn't I buy some cheap property five years ago?" Are you going to be among the number, or are you going to seize the opportunity NOW and save yourself all those bitter regrets?

Large Fifty Foot Lots in

Among the visitors is Senator J. W. Carson, of Beaver Falls. Pa. Senator Carson was a fellow-townman of Matthew Stanley Quay, the well-known Republican boss of the state of Pennsylvania. He is editor of the Review of Beaver, is vice-president of the state association, and is slated for the office of president at the next election.

John R. Farr, who is among the visitors, is former speaker of the House of Representatives of the state. During his term of service in the house, Mr. Farr secured the passage of a law of the state which provides that all school children shall be furnished with free text books. The cost entailed owing to the enactment of this legislation amounts to over $500,000 per annum.

Mr. Farr states that the educational provisions made by the state of Pennsylvania are the best made by any legislature in the world. The appropriations exceed five and one-half million, which is three times more than is made by the great state of New York.

Erasmus Wilson, of Pittsburg, is famous throughout the eastern states owing to his daily contribution of a column of soliloquy to his paper in the city of Pittsburg.

William C. Whistler, of the party, bears a most striking resemblance to the famous artist of the same name, and is said to be a cousin.

R. H. Thomas, Jr., is the editor of the greatest agricultural farmers' journal in the state. Mr. Thomas manages a fair all his own being in charge, with his associates of the most popular and successful granger exhibition held in the state. This fair is held at Mechanicsburg annually in August.

R. B. Haggood, the genial secretary of the association, is editor of the Bradford Evening Star, a most aggressive paper and a power in politics. Mr. Haggood is at the present time vigorously contesting the candidacy of a fellow townsman, who is seeking election to the position of governor of Pennsylvania on an Independent Republican nomination. Mr. Haggood stands for the regular Republican nominee.

The party travel by special train which includes five magnificent Pullmans, and the largest dining car in the world, seating fifty at the tables at once. Each Pullman has a captain through whom the wants and wishes of the visitors are made known to Mr. C. W. Speers, who is in charge of the party on behalf of the Canadian immigration department. Mr. Speers is the orator of the party, and has made some eloquent and other rhetorical bouquets. Since leaving Winnipeg our American friends have been forming golden opinions of Western hospitality. At Nepeawa they were given a dinner and a drive, and the same at Grandview. At Kamack they were welcomed in the Indian style by the Gabriel Cote Indians, where every lady on the train went into ecstasies over a chubby little papoose and begged the mother's leave to carry it around in their arms. The top notch of hospitality was reached at Kenora, where a little village of 180 people banqueted the party of 180 under an enormous canopy of boughs. The good people of Prince Albert entertained their guests to a breakfast on the Saskatchewan.

At Rosthern every lady on the trip was presented with a bouquet of flowers by little girls dressed in newspapers.

Battleford met the visitors with fifty teams and drove the entire party to Coal Falls. Afterwards they tendered them an elaborate banquet which closed with a magnificent ball. All the young ladies want to return by Battleford.

Lloydminster was truly western in its method of entertainment. First there was a breakfast, and it was a good one. There every lady was provided with a saddle pony. After returning from an exciting jaunt, they witnessed from the backs of their ponies a still more exciting exhibition of broncho-busting.

At Vermilion, the ladies aid of the hospital spread a banquet on the banks of the Vermilion river and presented each member with souvenir cards. The citizens of Vermilion subscribed $300 to help the ladies' aid. A photo was taken of the little party on the river bank, and each individual will receive one.

From Vermilion the party came on to Edmonton, reaching here too late to give the citizens any opportunity to adequately express their welcome. Mr. Thomas McNutt, speaker in the Legislature of Saskatchewan, is accompanying the party to the coast.

FLYER BLOWED INTO WRECK

(Special to the Bulletin)

Greenburg, Pa. July 30.—Running sixty miles an hour the Pennsylvania railroad, New York-Chicago eighteen hour flyer west bound dashed into a freight wreck that blocked all four tracks of the system a mile west of Blairsville last night. Miraculously no one on the flyer was injured. The stop made by Engineer Corson is pronounced by railroad men as the most remarkable ever made. The pilot on the passenger train plunged into the wreckage scattering it far and wide but the engine a long left, the tracks and the only other damages were scratches on the sides of the cars from contact with the wreckage when the train ploughed through the debris.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

is better than other Soaps but is best when used in the Sunlight way. Follow directions.

WAY OF WASHING

FIRST.—Dip the article to be washed in a tub of lukewarm water, draw it out on a soap suds and rub the soap lightly over it. Be particular not to rub soap all over it. THEN roll it in a tight roll, lay in the tub under the water, and go on the same way until all the pieces have the soap suds on, and are rolled up.

Then go away for thirty minutes to one hour and let the "Sunlight" soap do its work. After washing the clothes in lukewarm water, wash them in cold water, and the dirt will drop out, and in the coldest water it is not so hard to wash, rub some more soap on it, and throw out for a few minutes. THE FIFTH COMES THE RINSE, which is to be done in lukewarm water, taking special care to get all the dirty suds away, then wring out and hang up to dry.

For Woolens and Linens proceed as follows:—Shake the articles free from dust. Cut a piece of SUNLIGHT SOAP into a ball, and wash the article in lukewarm water, and wash in cold water, and the dirt will drop out, and in the coldest water it is not so hard to wash, rub some more soap on it, and throw out for a few minutes. THE FIFTH COMES THE RINSE, which is to be done in lukewarm water, taking special care to get all the dirty suds away, then wring out and hang up to dry.

The most delicate colors may be safely washed in the "Sunlight" way.

$5,000 REWARD will be paid to any person who proves that Sunlight Soap contains any injurious chemicals or any form of adulteration.

GETTING READY TO VACATE
 Regina Leader: A rumor which created much interest and considerable talk was current on the street late yesterday afternoon to the effect that the transfer of the Prince Albert branch to the Canadian Northern was to take place at midnight last night. Coupled with the rumor was the statement that the C.P.R. was tearing up the temporary siding extending along the north line from Dewdney street to the city limits and beyond.

Investigation by the Leader proved the latter statement to be correct and by six o'clock last evening the siding which was about half a mile in length had been torn up and the rails and ties loaded on cars for use elsewhere.

The rumor that the road was to be taken over at midnight by the C.N.R. proved however to be without foundation and had apparently arisen from the action of the C.P.R. in tearing up the siding.

So far as the Leader was able to learn last night, the C.P.R. is preparing for the early transfer of the line. Chief Engineer Busted of the C.P.R. is now up north arranging for the removal of C.P.R. property along the line. All sidings put in by the C.P.R. and which are their property, are being taken up and in addition to removing the siding here yesterday it was stated last night that the sidings at Saskatoon were also taken up.

At present the C.P.R. is operating the line on a monthly arrangement and it requires the giving of only one month's notice to that company to end their lease. The general impression seems to be that the required one month's notice will be given so as to allow of the taking over of the line just about the time the wheat begins to move. The C.N.R. have a great number of details to arrange before they will be in a position to operate and a considerable quantity of rolling stock will be required to equip the line. This will be one of the greatest difficulties facing the new company in taking over the line as they have extended their system in the west so rapidly that it has been an extremely difficult matter to keep pace in securing sufficient rolling stock.

The leader was informed from two different sources that with the taking over of the line by the C.N.R., a very considerable number of this C.P.R. employees on the line would enter the C.N.R. service.

A Saskatoon despatch says: The C.P.R. have been busily engaged this week in clearing up their yards here and removing all of the company's property over to their own line west. While there is no definite date mentioned here for the transfer of the Prince Albert line, it is generally considered that indications point to the transfer being made at no distant date.

COMPLAINTS AGAINST SOLDIERS

The Government of Natal has published a letter from the Bishop of Zululand, alleging that Col. Royston's column, early in July, looted kraals and carried off stock belonging to the loyal natives, robbed loyal Africans of their clothes and money, and tore the clothes off women.

The Bishop adds that certain natives found at a siding were brought into camp on July 5th and shot, and their bodies thrown down to rot. The bishop characterized the conduct of the column as a deep disgrace to Englishmen. Col. Royston appointed a court of inquiry on the bishop's complaint which found that the charge of robbery was not proven and that five native prisoners were shot while they were trying to escape, but the court held that the shooting was justifiable.

The Farm and Ranch Review in speaking of the horse exhibit at the Edmonton fair has this to say:

"The horse exhibit was one of the strong features of the exhibition. Alberta breeders are to be congratulated on the fine display they made at the first provincial exhibition. Before going any further the management should be congratulated in the way they attended to the wants and comforts of the exhibitors. If this policy is continued which we have every reason to believe will be done, they are bound to build up as good an exhibition as there is in the west."

"Speaking of 'Consul' the heavy stallion owned by John A. Turner of Calgary it says: 'He is a magnificent animal with true Clydesdale character, of the compact thick deep kind, standing on the best of feet and legs and captivated all with his close straight easy action.'"

"Agricultural and general purpose classes were all well filled and many of the animals were possessed of excellent quality; so that in most sections the prizes were strongly competed for and especially was this true in the general purpose class. Contrary to the showings at most fairs, the general purpose class was exceedingly strong. In this class there was an outstanding good team, good enough to win almost anywhere. The first prize brood mare was a grand mover. The three year old winner was an outstanding animal, active, graceful, muscular, a perfect picture. The two year old gelding that led was the type that will develop into a useful hardy horse. The winning foal was trim and active."

In both classes some very excellent horses were shown. A three year old roaster gelding was especially good. Some of the teams and single drivers showed considerable breed, speed and style. The single driver that won first in the carriage class was especially good, the second, however, although a right good individual was decidedly of a roadster type. "Sunshine," a pony owned by Russell Turner, son of J. A. Turner Calgary, caught the judge's eye and won first in his class. "Sunshine" is a model pony, and is rightly idolized by his little owner."

Opinions of such experts will be highly appreciated by the exhibitors and stimulate a better exhibit and keener competition in the various classes next year. This year indeed surpassed former years. There were over 200 entries of all classes of horses, and many excellent types of the respective breeders that will undoubtedly educate Alberta breeders in an industry which for many years to come promise to be highly remunerative.

DRY FARMING THE HOPE OF THE WEST

(By John L. Cowan, in the Century Magazine)

Nearly one third of the entire area of the United States, exclusive of Alaska, and our insular possessions, consists of vacant public lands regarded as naturally unsuited to cultivation on account of insufficient rainfall.

In at least ten Western commonwealths, the public lands constitute so large a portion of the public domain as to dominate their economic character. Great belts of territory are frequently in a condition closely bordering on anarchy. Cattle-owners and sheep-owners struggle for possession of lands belonging to neither. Forests are burned and looted. Legislators, governors, judges and minor public officials are elected and corrupted at the dictation of the cattle kings; and laws are passed, repealed, enforced, or disregarded to suit their interests. Legitimate settlers are discouraged, driven off, or bought out for a song. Agriculture is confined almost to small and scattered bits of irrigated land.

The vacant public domain now consists of about 600,000,000 acres. Of this area probably 70,000,000 acres are absolute desert, of sand, alkali, rock, and inhospitable mountain peak, in which no useful vegetation is found, and which will probably never be of any considerable economic value to mankind, excepting for their mineral resources. Approximately 90,000,000 acres may be described as woodland, sparsely covered with small trees, individually of small value, but yet useful for fire-wood, fence-posts, mine timbers, and similar purposes; and some 70,000,000 acres are heavily timbered, and of incalculable importance to present and future generations, not only for lumbering but also for the conservation of the water-supply. Possibly 70,000,000 acres may be reclaimed by irrigation, and thus brought to a high state of productivity. There will then remain more than 300,000,000 acres, useful, according to commonly accepted ideas, only for grazing.

However, the vacant public lands comprise only a part of the region of deficient rainfall known as Arid America. To these must be added the great railroad grants, the allotments of school lands to the several States, and the princely domains that have passed into the hands of private owners. In Texas alone there is an area of unimproved and uncultivated land almost equal in extent to the whole German empire. With the exception of Washington, Eastern Oregon, the northern half of California, and small portions of Idaho and Montana, the term Arid America includes virtually all the land between the one-hundredth meridian and the Pacific. Leaving out of consideration the portions that extend across the Canadian and Mexican boundary lines, it covers a territory extending north and south for a distance of 1200 miles, and east and west for 1200 miles, embracing four tenths of the total area of the Republic, and containing not less than one thousand million acres of land. To this may not improperly be added the so-called arid region between the ninety-seventh and the one-hundredth meridians, in which occasional seasons of sufficient or even superabundant rainfall are followed by years of drought, when scorching winds sweep up the growing grains and grasses upon which depend the hopes of the farmers. Over almost exactly one half the area of our country, therefore, the rainfall is insufficient for the successful cultivation of the ordinary crop plants—by ordinary farming methods at least. Agriculture, wherever attempted at all, partakes of the nature of a hazardous speculation, generally resulting in disaster, or at best, a meagre and hard-mouth existence; and grazing, backed up by ample capital and resources, is considered the only safe and profitable pursuit. This vast area, in which grazing is the principle industry, extends over all or part of seventeen States and Territories. In ten of these not more than two per cent of the land is under cultivation, and the population averages less than three to the square mile.

likes Abbey's Salt.

It is so pleasant to the taste that even children take it with pleasure. It does not "cake" or flake on, top of the water.

It effervesces slowly—may be drunk leisurely, without choking or blinding the user like sedlitz powders.

The granules all dissolve—thus the full benefit of the salt is obtained with every dose.

It is the ideal laxative and tonic to purify the blood—regulate stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels—and build up the system.

FAIR WAS GREAT SUCCESS.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Winnipeg, July 30.—With a fine Saturday the Winnipeg exhibition wound up what is considered to be the most successful fair in its history, with a total paid attendance of 118,398, only slightly exceeded by the two weeks' Dominion fair in 1904, a manufacturers' section that has never been exceeded here and a live stock exhibit that exceeded all predecessors. The only trouble department was the attraction program, which, though it included some of the best, had also some of the poorest. A regrettable feature was the action of several large Winnipeg houses in refraining from exhibiting, though as it was, Winnipeg was represented by a manufacturer's section that evoked expressions of surprise by its size. By common consent the carriage builders and allied trades, avoided the fair though offered a whole building for their exhibits. The three large iron works were also absent but this was accounted for by the non-settlement of the ironworkers' strike to a large degree.

LACROSSE GAMES.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Winnipeg, July 30.—Lacrosse: Cornwall 5, Capitals 4; National 8, Toronto 1.

HASTY JUSTICE.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Toronto, July 30.—T. W. McGarry, M.L.A., North Renfrew, was at Queen's Park, Saturday, to confer with Attorney General Foy respecting the somewhat rapid administration of justice as practised by Magistrate Brown, of Cobalt. George A. Moore was brought before him, charged with selling liquor illegally. He was tried within two hours of arrest and before he had any opportunity to prepare a defence. Within five minutes after conviction he was hurried to North Bay and is serving a four months' sentence.

ROAD NOT AFFECTED.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Detroit, Mich., July 29.—Counsel Frederick W. Stevens of the Pere Marquette railway received word today from the Canadian attorney of the road that the privy council of England has sustained the Canadian high court which ordered the deportation under the Canadian alien labor act, of American officials of the road, who were employed in St. Thomas, Ont. The decision will not affect the Pere Marquette as the road has moved its division headquarters from St. Thomas to Detroit since the appeal was taken, but is important as definitely establishing the right of a Canadian court to prevent American citizens from working in the Dominion. Officials along the border here, however, say that they do not anticipate any concrete effort by Canada to enforce this law.

LEAPED OVERBOARD.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Fort William, July 30.—While temporarily deranged a young man, apparently 30 years of age, name unknown, yesterday in mid-afternoon leaped from the deck of the steamer Saronic and was drowned.

STRIKE PETERED OUT.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
London, July 29.—The union has been beaten by the street railway company. Today two-thirds of the men were back on their jobs and Monday every man whom the company wants will be at work. The strike organized by Magnus Sinclair and a man named Marks has been a dismal failure and has petered out, owing to lack of public sympathy. There was considerable falling off in traffic but nevertheless a large number of union men patronized the cars. One shop hung out the sign, "We supported you last time but we won't this time." Not a single act of violence was reported.

NOTHING DOING YET.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Winnipeg, July 30.—Hon. R. P. Hallin, in regard to the rumor that action was being taken by the combined governments of the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan to cause an investigation to be made into the cattle industry of the west, stated that nothing definite had been undertaken or accomplished, and that no conferences relating to the same had been held.

C.P.R. AGENT HELD UP.

Burnside, Man., July 29.—Two masked highwaymen held up F. A. Anderson, C.P.R. agent yesterday afternoon. Under cover of ugly looking guns Anderson threatened with death, surrendered the cash in his possession. There was no one around the station when two well-dressed men entered the place. One of them appeared at the window with a bag over his face. He pointed a revolver through the aperture and ordered Anderson to open the door. He did so and the other robber, also masked, and with his gun ready marched in. The agent was backed into a corner while the desperadoes searched the premises. They secured several dollars and after commanding their victim not to leave the room under pain of death ran across the track. Anderson gave the alarm and a number pursued them. The men were as cool when arrested as when they were robbing the station. They put up a beautiful bluff and while willingly returning the money, insisted that they could not be arrested until a warrant had been secured. The citizens consented to await further action until a warrant could be produced. The robbers disappeared. Later a telegram was received from Winnipeg to arrest the men at once and a search was made. The robbers had been looting around town all day. They entered Fox's store and undertook to rob the place. They asked for cider and gave the clerk a $20 bill. While he was in the cellar they extracted $10 from the drawer. The act was observed and when the clerk returned the bill was dropped on the floor. Following the hold-up much excitement prevailed.

Brandon, July 30.—When the local arrived from the east a man giving his name as Geo. Draper of Kansas City, was locked up. He answered the description of one of the men who held up the station agent at Burnside. He was at least one of the two men who attempted to rob Fox's store.

BAD STORMS IN THE STATES.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Minneapolis, July 30.—Crops in western states were severely damaged by storms, Saturday.

U. S. SAILOR SHOT.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Chefoo, China, July 28.—Lieut. Clarence England, of the United States cruiser Chattanooga was wounded this morning by a bullet from the French cruiser Thémis and died this evening. The French squadron was engaged in small arms practice as the Chattanooga passed the warship on her way outside to engage in target practice.

GRAND FORKS AND HANCOCK.

(Special to The Bulletin.)
Duluth, July 28.—The board of control of the Northern Copper country baseball league met here today. The franchise of Grand Forks was forfeited and as it left only seven teams, Hancock was dropped for the balance of the season. Hancock retains its right for future shares in any balance of the league and in equalization of mileage also in connection with all players that are awarded to other clubs. Hancock retains a reserve. It was the feeling of the league that as Hancock and Houghton are close together it would be for the interest of all to drop Hancock.

Saturday's scores.—Lake Linden 13, Winnipeg 1; Winnipeg 16, Lake Linden 12; second game: Calumet 12, Duluth 8; Houghton 7, Grand Forks 5; Houghton 4, Grand Forks 2, second game. Sunday scores—raja at Fargo. Hancock 1, Fargo 0; Duluth 2, Calumet 1.

Examine the Label.

Paste diamonds look pretty to the casual look. The test is a scratch, and the fraud is exposed.

There are transparent imitations of the genuine Semi-ready. Ten days' wear is the test which usually lays bare the weak points of the imitation coat.

Your guarantee that it is the real "Semi-ready" is the label and the price on the inside. The trade mark is your protective warranty.

"Semi-ready" tailoring has given to gentlemen who dress well their first freedom from the irritating waits of the old-time custom tailoring methods.

We have in Worsteds Suits—real "Semi-ready" Suits—some at $20 that are worth more. Men's Spring Fashion Book—free.

Oxford Hot Water Boiler

THE Oxford Hot Water Boiler takes advantage of every known scientific point which will increase the generation and distribution of heat. We have increased its power enormously by making the walls of the fire pot slant upwards above the fire. This gives a greater surface for the direct action of the rays of heat.

The first water section over the fire is double depth, with bell-shaped flues, which also increase the surface directly displayed to the action of the heat.

These are but two of the exclusive points which make the Oxford Hot Water Boiler the most economical and most efficient home-warming apparatus on the market. If you will drop us a post card, we will send you our catalogue, which explains the whole system.

City News

Winnipeg Free Press: There was a large gathering of friends, relatives and others, at the St. Boniface hospital last evening to witness the distribution of gold and silver medals and diplomas to the successful graduate nurses who had completed their two and a half years' course of instruction at the training school there. His grace, Archbishop Langerin was to have taken the chair, but being unable to be present the Rev. Father Cherrier, rector of the church of the Immaculate Conception, officiated in his stead. He was supported by Chief Justice Dugas, Monsignor Dugas, Rev. Father Jose Mosier, Drs. Good, Lambert, Slater, Peatman, McKenty and Burns, members of the medical staff of the St. Boniface hospital. The exercises took place on the lawn in front of the hospital, where the successful graduates together with their companions (who have not yet completed their term), to the number of nearly fifty were seated facing the chairman and his party. There were six lady graduates who received their diplomas, namely Misses Martha Morkin, Lena McCann, Alice Leeny, Ella McGuire, Catherine Kelly May Anderson. Miss Martha Morkin also received the gold medal presented for general efficiency, and Misses Alice Leeny and Ella McGuire having tied for second place, each has received a silver medal for proficiency.

Before the chairman called on each graduate to come forward and receive her well earned reward, he addressed a few words of congratulation to each and at the same time took the opportunity of thanking the faculty of the institution for their great services rendered to his nephew who had recently been a patient at the hospital, but who was now able to walk again. Continuing, the chairman remarked that the lives of the graduates while studying for their profession were not all comfort and ease. Their work had been very severe and arduous, but now they were about to receive their rewards and he anticipated a great future for each of them.

The diplomas and medals were then presented and each young lady also received a beautiful bouquet of cut flowers. Drs. Good, Lambert, J. McKenty, Peatman and Burns also addressed the assembly, after which a lawn social was held. It was a most enjoyable function. The Norwood band, under the conductorship of Mr. Derby, was in attendance and played several selections which greatly added to the evening's enjoyment.

Miss Morkin is well known in Edmonton.

Will Require More Tranches

Work upon the trenching at the city nuisance grounds for the new sewer system is progressing slowly. The trenching is still being carried on by teams and scrapers and the new Carson trencher which the city recently purchased to do the work lies idle. It is expected though, that the machine will be in commission inside of two weeks. Mr. Smith, an expert from Boston, Mass., arrived last week, and will at once proceed to see the machine in operation.

Talking with the Bulletin on Saturday, city engineer Keeley made the statement that even with one trench working to its limit and refilling as it goes the first contract would take considerably over a year, probably two years to complete. The first contract on the new system extends from the nuisance grounds to McKenzie avenue. It would require at least one more trench. Mr. Keeley said to complete the contract within a year. It would be well for the city to purchase two more machines. The cost of the machine now owned by the city, was about $5,000. The use of the machines would do away with a great deal of the labor now employed, although two or three teams would be required to move the earth which was not used in refilling.

WETASKIWIN HERE TONIGHT

The famous red-stocking nine from Wetaskiwin, known as the Cubs, will arrive on this afternoon's train from the south, for a return game with the Capitals. The exhibition will be on Second street grounds at 8:45 sharp, and the admission will be two bits. Edmonton will have a good team on the diamond. Yeazall will pitch, with Hodge, the new man behind the bat. Pitman, of the great arm, and Gouche, with the big mitt and the curly hair that used to be, will contribute a battery for the Cubs. It will be a good game.

CAPITALS RETURN

The Edmonton ball team returned on Saturday from their third trip to the horse country. With the exception of the shabby treatment the boys received from the umpire at two games in Calgary the boys were well entertained in the south. At Wetaskiwin the team was played out, and the exhibition was poor. Vining was pitching and was away off color, making some bad errors.
